PART 1: INTRODUCTION AND NEUROSCIENCE . . . . . 1

Chapter 1	Introduction: Principles and Background . . . . .	1
	John V. Basmajian
Chapter 2	Biomedical Foundations for Biofeedback as a Part of Behavioral Medicine	5
	Neal E. Miller
Chapter 3	Neurophysiological Factors in Electromyographic Feedback for Neuromotor Disturbances . . . . .	17
	Steven L. Wolf and Stuart A. Binder-Macleod
Chapter 4	Anatomical and Physiological Basis for Biofeedback of Autonomic Regulation . . . . .	37
	John V. Basmajian
Chapter 5	Intentional Psychological Modulation of the Immune System . . . . .	49
	G. Richard Smith
Chapter 6	Clinical Psychoneuroimmunology: Strategies for Self-Regulation of Immune System Responding . . . . .	57
	Patricia Norris
Chapter 7	Electroencephalographic Biofeedback and Neurological Applications . . . . .	67
	Joel F. Lubar

---

PART 2: NEUROMOTOR REHABILITATION . . . . . 91

---

Chapter 8	Electromyographic Biofeedback in the Physical Therapy Clinic . . . . .	91
	Steven L. Wolf and Stuart A. Binder-Macleod
Chapter 9	Biofeedback in Stroke Rehabilitation . . . . .	105
	Debbie E. LeCraw
Chapter 10	Combined Behavioral Therapy for the Hemiplegic Arm and Hand . . . . .	119
	John V. Basmajian
Chapter 11	Biofeedback Strategies of the Occupational Therapist in Total Hand Rehabilitation . . . . .	123
	D. Michael Brown and Foad Nahai
Chapter 12	Further Applications of Electromyographic Muscle Reeducation . . . . .	137
	Foad Nahai and D. Michael Brown
Chapter 13	Biofeedback in Spasticity Control . . . . .	141
	Gary DeBacher

Chapter 14	Electromyographic Feedback for Spinal Cord Injured Patients: A Realistic Perspective . . . . .	153
	Steven L. Wolf
Chapter 15	Biofeedback and Other Behavioral Techniques in the Treatment of Disorders of Voluntary Movement . . . . .	159
	Charles S. Cleeland
<hr/>
PART 3: PSYCHOTHERAPEUTIC APPLICATIONS . . . . .		169
<hr/>
Chapter 16	Autogenic Training and Biofeedback Combined: A Reliable Method for the Induction of General Relaxation . . . . .	169
	Johann Martin Stoyva
Chapter 17	Biofeedback-Assisted Relaxation Strategies in Psychotherapy . . . . .	187
	Paul L. Fair
Chapter 18	Biofeedback Strategies in Headache Treatment . . . . .	197
	Thomas H. Budzynski
Chapter 19	General and Specific Applications of Thermal Biofeedback . . . . .	209
	Elmer E. Green and Alyce M. Green
Chapter 20	Behavioral Applications in the Treatment of Patients with Cardiovascular Disorders . . . . .	223
	Bernard T. Engel and Walter F. Baile
Chapter 21	Strategies in General Psychiatry . . . . .	233
	Charles Spencer Adler and Sheila Morrissey-Adler
Chapter 22	Biofeedback and Psychosomatic Disorders . . . . .	249
	Charles Spencer Adler and Sheila Morrissey-Adler
Chapter 23	QR: A Conditioned Quieting Reflex for Optimizing Applied Psychophysiology, Biofeedback, and Self-Regulation Therapies . . . . .	265
	Charles F. Stroebel
<hr/>
PART 4: SPECIAL APPLICATIONS . . . . .		273
Chapter 24	Biofeedback Control of Gastrointestinal Motility . . . . .	273
	Marvin M. Schuster
Chapter 25	Biofeedback Training of the Pelvic Floor and Continence . . . . .	281
	Dugal Campbell
Chapter 26	Electromyographic Biofeedback and the Treatment of Communication Disorders . . . . .	287
	Brent Carman and Gary Ryan
Chapter 27	Dental Applications of Biofeedback . . . . .	297
	Andrew J. Cannistraci and George Fritz
Chapter 28	Therapeutic Electromyography in Chronic Back Pain . . . . .	311
	Herbert E. Johnson and Virgil Hockersmith
Chapter 29	Biofeedback Treatment of Primary Raynaud's Disease . . . . .	317
	Keith Sedlacek

	PART 5: TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS .....	323
Chapter 30	Basic Biofeedback Electronics for the Clinician .....	323
	Bernard A. Cohen
Chapter 31A	Equipment Needs for Psychotherapists .....	337
	Kirk E. Peffer
Chapter 31B	Supplementary Equipment Needs in the Rehabilitation Setting .....	347
	C. Kumarlal Fernando
Chapter 32	Computers in Biofeedback .....	351
	David A. Paskewitz
Chapter 33	Feedback Goniometers for Rehabilitation .....	359
	Gary DeBacher
Chapter 34	Electrode Placement in Electromyographic Biofeedback .....	369
	John V. Basmajian and Robert Blumenstein
	PART 6: ENVOY .....	383
Chapter 35	Research and Feedback in Clinical Practice: A Commentary on Responsible Biofeedback Therapy .....	383
	Gary E. Schwartz
	Index .....	389
