

the Invincible Armada out of the Tagus to meet its fate at the hands of Lord Howard and the North Sea.

to supply the act, however, advantage of the

J. FLAMENC.

J. QUARTLEY.

EXECUTION OF PROTESTANTS IN THE NETHERLANDS.

who, by rank of teers, ga the Eng twenty-f seized I point of soon for pregnab tained a to his S and isla Catharin were pre for St. from a came to declarati Orange, of Holl Utrecht, sent from ment of held will this act said to b

This which th first asto Spaniard ery sud In addit of the F him. It king of H be strictl ions, and olic or P suited th Alva per erful sup the side who gove throwing Dutch.

took the courage and saw of Nassau into I Meanwhile P

But openly the two kingdoms continued at peace. Elizabeth, not wishing to violate the law of nations, forbade her subjects any longer